International Students

International Tax Filing for Spring 2021

As an international student or scholar in the U.S., you must complete and submit tax forms to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service if you studied in the U.S. for any part of 2020. The forms you fill out depend on both your tax residency and if you earned any U.S.-sourced income.

I did not earn income from U.S. sources during 2020

U.S. federal requirements:

- If you did not earn any income from U.S. sources, you must file IRS Form 8843 by May 17, 2021 (this date has been extended from April 15, 2021).

Arizona and/or other U.S. state requirements:

- There are no other state tax filing requirements if you did not earn income from U.S. sources.

I earned income from U.S. sources during 2020

You will have to report any U.S. income that you earned during 2020. While you're studying in the U.S., you will fall into one of two sets of rules for U.S. tax purposes: nonresident or resident. Generally, most international students and scholars who are on F, J, M or Q visas are considered nonresidents for tax purposes. However, the determination is based on your visa type in combination with the duration of time you have spent in the U.S. Your tax filing status is not a reflection of your immigration status. This determination is based on the substantial presence test.

Necessary documents to file your tax return if you earned income from U.S. sources

You will need the following documents to file your taxes:

- W-2 form from every employer you had in 2020.
 - If you worked for ASU and have not received your W-2, check My ASU. If you're still unable to locate it, please contact ASU Human Resources.

I am a nonresident for U.S. tax purposes and earned U.S. income

U.S. federal requirements:

- You must file federal taxes using IRS Form 8843 and IRS Form 1040NR by May 17, 2021 (this date has been extended from April 15, 2021).

Arizona and/or other state requirements:

- You may also be required to file a tax return for every state you earned income in during 2020. For Arizona, you must file AZ Form 140 by May 17, 2021 (this date has been extended from April 15, 2021).

I am a resident for U.S. tax purposes and earned U.S. income

U.S. federal requirements:

- You must file federal taxes using IRS Form 1040 and possibly Form 8833 by May 17, 2021 (this date has been extended from April 15, 2021).

Arizona and/or other state requirements:

- You may also be required to file a tax return for every state you earned income in during 2020. For Arizona, you must file AZ Form 140 by May 17, 2021 (this date has been extended from April 15, 2021).

You can use any number of tax preparation softwares or preparers to assist you in your filing requirements. ASU has arranged for individuals to use Sprintax Tax Preparation, which is a preparation software for tax filing for nonresidents. More information about Sprintax will be provided to you next week. For more information or questions contact ISSC.
